Cocktails

Aperol Spritz £7

Light, refreshing with a unique bittersweet taste, made with Prosercco, Aperol and a dash of soda this is the perfect drink to start the evening.

What is Pisco?

Pisco is distilled in the Elqui Valley 107 km east of La Serena, which is 1300 metres above sea level. This liquor is distilled from muscat grapes and is considered the national drink of Chile.

La Mama's own Pisco Sour £8

Pisco Sour is the most common way to drink pisco. It is made with fresh lime juice, icing sugar and Chilean pisco. It is traditionally served in a champagne glass. We recommend that you start every great dinner with a glass!

Margarita £8

Everyone knows the Margarita, that refreshing drink that can be made in so many ways. The classic recipe is tequila, triple sec and lime juice served in a salted rimmed martini glass with dried chilli flakes. Swap the triple sec and add melon liqueur...it is amazing!

Gin Atomic £8

Otherwise known as a nuclear gin and tonic or at least one that radiates flavour! Comprised of dry gin, with a hand full of basil, a good helping of elderflower liquor and fresh lime juice, topped with elderflower tonic. Boom!

Caipirinha with Red Berries £8

If you're out dancing at Rio's carnival there's no doubt you will be drinking a Caipirinha. Cachaça, a distilled spirit made from sugar cane juice, is combined with fresh lime, red berries and fine Panela brown sugar. This drink is sure to make your cheeks rosy!

Cola de Mono £8 (Chilean Espresso Martini)

The perfect pick me up cocktail! Fresh espresso coffee shaken with coffee liqueur, sweet condensed milk and a fabulous dash of Chilean pisco!

Aqua de Coco £8

Pure and simple - coconut rum, vodka and a splash of coconut water, shaken with ice and finished with coconut flakes.

Jug Of

Sangria £15.50

Sangria is one of the most popular drinks in Spain, great for sharing. The recipe we use consists of full bodied red wine, rum, sweet vermouth, triple sec, orange and lemonade. Served in a jug filled with ice and fruit.
